CITY NEWS.

To the Advertising Patrons of the Democrat.

We have already notified many of the advertising patrons of the Democrat that owing to the advancing price of everything used in the publication of a newspaper, and the increased wages of printers and others, we are compelled to adopt a new scale of rates, to commence on the 1st of January, 1864.

We have enclosed a circular to our advertisers generally. The rates will apply to all old patrons, as well as new ones. This change is imperatively demanded by our increased expense in producing the paper, and is reluctantly asked. When the greatly increased circulation of the Democrat is taken into account, the schedule rates do not make it more costly in proportion to publicity given than it has been heretofore.

If any of our old patrons do not feel inclined to adopt the new rates they will please inform us; and should we not, in a reasonable space of time, hear from them, we shall consider them as having assented to the changes. If any desire to change their mode of advertising, or to increase or reduce the quantity of matter, they will please call at the office.

ACCIDENT ON THE NASHVILLE RAILROAD.—THE TRAIN A COMPLETE WRECK.—Yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock an accident occurred on the Louisville and Nashville railroad, which destroyed a number of cars. As the freight train from Nashville for this city was coming along at full speed, and when at Upton, a station 59 miles below here, the wheel of one of the front cars broke, and the balance of the cars, eight in number, piled over each other, smashing things generally, and causing one complete wreck. Two of the cars were filled with horses, which were thrown in every direction, and, strange as it may seem, but one of the animals was killed. The brakemen, who were on the top of the cars, escaped unharmed, with the exception of one, who had his hand badly smashed. The track for several yards was torn up by the accident, owing to which fact the passenger train due at this city at 7 o'clock last evening did not arrive until after 12 o'clock at night. The mail agent on the passenger train, who furnished us with these particulars, states that it was miraculous that no more persons were hurt, as some of the brakemen were thrown some twenty or thirty feet by the sudden stoppage of the cars while going at full speed.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS—Thursday, Jan. 21. The case against B. B. Smith, the cotton broker of Memphis, for obtaining money by false pretenses from Wm. Rice and W. R. Shrader, was sent to the military.

Thos. Adkins alias George H. Monroe, charged with stealing a horse from Daniel Stone. He was sent back to Frankfort, where he found the bridle and saddle, but after proceeding several miles, found that a horse was an attache of the saddle and bridle, and appropriated the same to his own use, having found a horse head in the bridle.

A negro was found on the bench, presented by a citizen, his owner; he was discharged by the court with the injunction that the owners of slaves must control them.

J. Cohen, charged with enticing away the slave of Ben. Goody; held in $300 to quit the Commonwealth.

ARREST OF A YOUNG THIEF.—Some three days since Daniel Webster, a youth of about 15 years, well known as the captain of the notorious band of young rogues called the forty thieves, picked the pocket of a soldier of $40 while the latter was intoxicated. The officers have been in search of Webster since that time, but he succeeded in eluding them until last night, when he was arrested by officers McGuire and Griffy. Webster has often been before the police court on similar charges, and, though hoy, he is undoubtedly one of the most adroit thieves in the city. His trial was on the 21st, and he was unanimously elected. The band of which he is captain is composed of boys between the ages of nine and fifteen, who have, within the past year, robbed our citizens of fully $50,000. Numbers of the band have been arrested on several occasions, but they have generally managed to get off on account of their age. Louisville should have a house of correction, where these youths could be confined and bound to some trade.

A RELIC OF OLD TIMES—We were yesterday shown, by Mr. H. M. Addison, a book of sacred music published in the last century, originally belonging to his grandfather. It is in good preservation, and contains those grand old tunes sung by our forefathers, and which have never been excelled by any modern tunes, for solemn grandeur and sweetnes of melody as well as for the devotional feelings they inspire. Mr. A. interest spending the remainder of the winter here, and says he would be pleased to meet occasionally with a few lovers of ancient music, and practice some of these tunes with them. A note through the postoffice will be attended to.

In the Democrat of yesterday we stated that a number of ladies had been arrested for harboring officers. On yesterday Mrs. Lightcap, her three daughters and Mrs. Stewart were taken before Ms. Fitch and examined, and their cases were referred to Capt. Jones. They were taken back to their residences, where they are still confined under guard. Their cases will be finally disposed of to-day.

The report that the Government had taken fifty steamers at Cairo, proves to be incorrect. We are informed by Col. Lewis B. Pearson, Chief Quartermaster of the Western River Transportation, that only fifteen boats were called for or taken. No more are required, and these only for a brief period.

The court martial that has been in session here for two or three weeks, trying the case of Quartermaster Black, will go to Lexington this week to hear concluding testimony, after which it will be transferred to Cincinnati for the trial of Captain Hart.

A few days since a Doctor Snapper was arrested for furnishing soldiers with discharge papers without authority, representing him, self as a surgeon in the United States Army. He was confined in the military prison.

The city is exceedingly quiet, yesterday, being one of the dullest days we have seen for a long time. There was not a single item of importance transpiring in either military or court circles.

Maj. Smith, who was arrested Wednesday upon the charge of being a rebel spy, was released yesterday, it being proved that he was a loyal citizen and faithful officer.

General Tom Thumb and wife and Comodore Nutt and his intended will give their first exhibition here on next Tuesday, at Masonic Temple.

The coal dealers here continue to deliver Pittsburg coal at forty cents per bushel, or ten dollars per load.

MEETING OF THE CITY COUNCIL.

Action in regard to the Removal of the Capital from this City—Election of Councilmen.

Both boards of the Council assembled at the city building at the usual hour last evening. A message was received from the Mayor in regard to the removal of the Capital to this city, in which he stated that there was a proposition before the State Legislature for the removal of the Capital to some river town, and, upon the resolution of the Council the necessity of taking some immediate action in regard to the matter. In the message was enclosed a letter from J. R. Thomas, chairman of the committee of co-operation and public institutions, asking what was the feeling of the people of Louisville in regard to the removal of the Capital to this city, and what they would do with the public buildings here. He further stated that as chairman of that committee he would take no action in regard to the resolution now pending before the House until he heard from the city. The Council referred the matter to the committee on contracts, with the privilege of reporting at once. The committee, through their chairman, R. J. Elliott, offered the following preamble and resolution:

WHEREAS, Measures are about being taken for the removal of the Capital of the State from the City of Frankfort; and whereas, it is deemed that it will be greatly advantageous to the State to have its Capital in the city of Louisville, which is considered to be the best site for the same; therefore,

Resolved by the General Council of the City of Louisville, That in the event of the removal of the State Capital to the city, (which removal is to be effected by the election of a citizen of the citizens, desire and solicit,) we will to the fullest possible extent surrender the public property in the control of the said city to the use of the State Government, and that the State may erect such buildings as may be erected by the State. And further, that all aid which the State may require in reference to the erection of public buildings for the use of the State officers and State purposes will be cheerfully rendered by this city;

This preamble and resolution was passed by both boards, and we understand that the Mayor will proceed to Frankfort to-day with a copy of the same, which will be laid before the State Legislature.

A message was also received from the Mayor stating that on the 11th instant he purchased for the city stock in the gas company to the amount of $80 shares, amounting in the aggregate to $67,980, leaving a credit of balance due the city on dividends, interest, &c., of $48,144 to 70, making $19,832 in cash still due the gas company, on which amount the city propose to pay interest until the 1st of July next, when the principal and interest will be paid.

The Mayor also sent in a message stating that he had sold to the United States government three of the old hand-engines, three horse-carriages and 1,800 feet of hose for the sum of $3,000, for which he had received a quartermaster's voucher.

This message was transacted in the Court House on the 11th instant. The following business was transacted in the Circuit Court yesterday: Mr. Brockman, indicted for murder, was found guilty of manslaughter and sentenced to ten years confinement in the penitentiary. [Ennis Kelly, for assault with intent to kill, was found guilty and sentenced to one year in the penitentiary. Geo. Sanders, f. m. c., for assaulting a little boy of Mr. Muldoon so badly that the child died, is on trial. The case of Glasgow Bennett, f. m. c., charged with running off slaves, was continued.

The Mayor also sent in a message stating that he had sold to the United States government three of the old hand-engines, three horse-carriages and 1,800 feet of hose for the sum of $3,000, for which he had received a quartermaster's voucher.

A resolution was passed by the lower board requesting the Legislature of the State to amend the charter of the "Cave Hill Cemetery Company." This amendment so alters the charter that the lots in the cemetery cannot be subject to execution or sale; and also to allow the managers to elect the directors. In the upper board the resolution was referred to the Committee on Cemeteries and Finance.

In the lower board a petition against the Louisville and Jeffersville Ferry Company for irregular running during the past six months, signed by a number of citizens, and asking the Council to take some action in the matter, was presented and read. The petition was referred to a special committee, consisting of Messrs. Cronic, Spaulding and Tucker.

An ordinance was passed requiring auctioneers to make a full statement to the court before the 10th of each month of the gross proceeds of their auction sales for the preceding months, and that they be required to pay into the city treasury one half of one per cent. on said sales.

A number of claims were allowed, and a number of reports received, which were adopted.

The Council then went into joint session for the election of councilmen to fill the vacancies caused by the resignation of A. Y. Johnson, of the First ward, and J. Price of the Sixth ward. There were two nominations: M. D. Smith and Michael Downing. The latter was elected on the first ballot—the vote standing Downing 12, Smith 11. For the Sixth ward there was but one nomination, W. F. Benett, and he was unanimously elected. The joint session then arose.

Without transacting any further business of importance, the Council adjourned to meet again next Thursday night.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.—On next Lord's day, the 24th inst., Elder Moses E. Lard, of Georgetown, Kentucky, will commence a meeting, which is to continue from night to night, in the house of Mr. Lee, on the corner of Chestnut and Floyd streets, in this city.

In addition to this notice, we would add that for profound logic and the power to impress it religiously upon his audience, he has few equals in this or any other country.

He was a Texas Ranger in the Confederate service, and acknowledged, before being executed, that he had successfully performed the part of a spy for the South for over two years."

"About ten days since, General Longstreet sent in word to General Foster that he had objections to copies of President Lincoln's amnesty proclamation being sent to his troops without first being submitted to him for inspection, and hoped the latter method would be adopted in the future. Gen. Foster replied by inclosing twenty-five copies of the proclamation, and twenty-five copies of Gen. Grant's order relating thereto.

"On last Friday week, a Confederate spy named Doss was executed near Knoxville. When apprehended he was dressed in Federal uniform, and had a complete list of all the Federal regiments, their positions in the field, commanders, &c., &c. He was a Texas Ranger in the Confederate service, and acknowledged, before being executed, that he had successfully performed the part of a spy for the South for over two years."
